Keys to the Kingdom

INTRODUCTION:

Mark 16:15-18 “Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. And these signs will follow those who believe: in My name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues; they will pick up snakes with their hands, and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not harm them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will be made well.”

Jesus is perfect Theology. The best deliverer who ever lived is Jesus Christ. So his teachings are the best to start your foundation in the deliverance ministry. In deliverance it's important that everything is in line with scripture, but it doesn't need to be specifically mentioned, for example, the names of the different spirits and what they do. The bible does not attempt to be ALL inclusive of all truth, in fact if it was all the libraries in the world would not contain it.

John 20:30 “Jesus performed many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not recorded in this book.”

John 16:12 “I have much more to say to you, more than you can now bear. But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all the truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come.”

John 14:12-14 “Truly, truly, I tell you, whoever believes in Me will also do the works that I am doing. He will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father. And I will do whatever you ask in My name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask Me for anything in My name, I will do it.”

If Jesus was perfect theology, and casting out evil spirits was 1/3 of Jesus' ministry, then ministry today should look like the ministry of Jesus.

Philippians 4:9 Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me—put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you.

We are not seeking demons, we are seeking the purity of the bride.

Ephesians 5:27 Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave Himself up for her to sanctify her, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word, and to present her to Himself as a glorious church, without stain or wrinkle or any such blemish, but holy and blameless.

The Spirit, Soul, and Body

We are spiritual beings having a human experience, not human beings having a spiritual experience. The bible teaches that humans beings have a spirit, soul, and a body, all separate from each other but connected.

We are created in God's image. We have a spirit, soul, and body. Looking at the image of God, He is made up of 3 parts: Father (soul), Son (body), and Holy Spirit (spirit). This explains how we are created in God's image.

The Greek and Hebrew words below are the terms used for spirit, soul, and body found in the bible in both the Old and New Testament.

	SPIRIT	SOUL	BODY
GREEK	pneúma	psychi	Sóma
HEBREW	ruach	nephesh	gviyah

When the Holy Spirit enters you, He lives and is sealed in your spirit realm which is eternal. When an evil spirit enters, it lives in your soul realm and hijacks your mind, will, and emotions which is the driving seat of your body (your actions and sickness).

Just like a christian may have a sickness in their body, they can also have a sickness in their soul, which is an affliction of an evil spirit. The soul is connected to the body and so an evil spirit can cause physical affliction.

The translation “demon-possessed” in our bibles today is a a misleading translation. This gives us the impression the demon owns the person, when it doesn't. The correct translation is closer to “demon afflicted”. The Holy Spirit possess you, not an evil spirit. The Holy Spirit is sealed in your spirit and owns your spirit, but you can still be afflicted by an evil spirit. We can't be naive that Christians cannot have evil spirits afflicting them. The bible says that “in the last days some WILL abandon the faith and follow deceiving spirits and things taught by demons” (1 Timothy 4:1). This is specifically telling us Christian will follow demons. Teaching that Christians cannot have demons is false doctrine.

The Holy Spirit dwells in your spirit realm and Jesus says “whoever believes in me, as scripture has said, rivers of living water will flow from within them.” (John 7:38). From the inside out, through the soul and to the body, the Holy Spirit brings healing, deliverance and restoration. God recreates the image of man back to His image before the fall through the power of his Holy Spirit.

So while the Holy Spirit influences you to be Christ-like, evil spirits influence you to be sinful. This explains why a new christian who believes in Jesus and is saved can still struggle with sin (may be sexual sin, pride, manipulation, greed etc). So that part of their soul is still under the influence of demons even though they are a Christian. 1 John 3:8 says “He who sins is of the devil”. This person will need deliverance in this area of their soul. The verse continues to say “The reason the Son of God was made manifest was to destroy the works of the devil.” And this is our mission now.

DELIVERANCE VERSES FOUND IN THE BIBLE:

What can we learn from these verses?

Matthew 4:23-25 And he went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every affliction among the people. So his fame spread throughout all Syria, and they brought him all the sick, those afflicted with various diseases and pain, those oppressed by demons; those having seizures, and paralytics, and He healed them. And great crowds followed him from Galilee and the Decapolis, and from Jerusalem and Judea, and from beyond the Jordan.

- Deliverance spread the fame of Jesus' ministry. Without deliverance his fame would not have spread as much.
- People with pain and medical problems got delivered from demons. This tells us sickness is from the devil, not God. It is God's will that His people are delivered from sickness, disease and pain.
- Jesus brought deliverance into the synagogues (churches) of his people. Deliverance was not done in hidden places, but out in the open in front of people. Many people today refuse deliverance because they are worried of being vulnerable or embarrassed in front of people and remain in bondage.

Matthew 6:13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

- Evil exists in a form that we need to get delivered from.
- This prayer was for the disciples, not just Jews. Christ's own followers needed to be delivered from evil (which is also the name of an evil spirit "Evil")

Matthew 7:18-22 A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. So then, by their fruit you will recognize them.

Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of My Father in heaven. Many will say to Me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your name, and in Your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?'

Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you doers of lawlessness!'

- In the future Jesus predicts that many will be casting out demons. He says that on Judgment day not every one is guaranteed to enter Heaven just because they did supernatural works.
- Doers of wickedness automatically don't know Christ, regardless if they see miracles. (Walk in the light as He is in the light – see John 1:7)

Matthew 8:16-17 That evening they brought to him many who were oppressed by demons, and he cast out the spirits with a word and healed all who were sick. This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah: “He took our illnesses and bore our diseases”.

- When you're under the full anointing it is possible for spirits to come out with a word or few words. This is a possibility but not a guarantee. We all want a deliverance ministry as effective as Christ.

Matthew 8:28-34 And when he came to the other side, to the country of the Gadarenes, two demon-possessed men met him, coming out of the tombs, so fierce that no one could pass that way. And behold, they cried out, “What have you to do with us, O Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?” Now a herd of many pigs was feeding at some distance, from them. And the demons begged him, saying, “If you cast us out, send us away into the herd of pigs.” And he said to them, “Go.” So they came out and went into the pigs, and behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea and drowned in the waters. The herdsmen fled, and going into the city they told everything, especially what had happened to the demon-possessed men. And behold, all the city came out to meet Jesus, and when they saw him, they begged him to leave their region.

- Jesus crossed an ocean for two men (1 in another scripture)
- Demon oppressed people can get aggressive.
- Demons know they have nothing in common with Jesus (“what have you to do with us?”)
- Demons can cause suicide. In this case the demons went into the pigs are caused them to jump off a cliff.
- The pigs were aware the demons entered. If pig can feels demons, so can humans
- The fear of the deliverance happening caused the spiritually uneducated to not want anything to do with Christ because of the fear he had just caused them.
- If you kick out the deliverance ministry, you kick out Jesus (they begged Jesus to leave). So the rest of their community didn't receive any deliverance.

Matthew 9:32 -34 As they were going away, behold, a demon-oppressed man who was mute was brought to him. And when the demon had been cast out, the mute man spoke. And the crowds marveled, saying, “Never was anything like this seen in Israel”. But the Pharisees said, “He casts out demons by the prince of demons.”

- People with the wrong understanding, pride, and other agendas can accuse you of doing the work of the devil instead of the work of God.
- Deliverance was not found in the Old Testament so many marveled at deliverance.
- The mute man would never speak if no one had delivered him.

Matthew 10:5-8 These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them, “Go nowhere among the Gentiles and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. And proclaim as you go, saying, 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand. Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without paying; give without pay.

- Bring healing and deliverance with you because that is the Kingdom of Heaven.
- This was, and is, still a command, not a suggestion.

Matthew 12:22-30 (also Mark 3:20-27 & Luke 11:17-20) Then a demon-oppressed man who was blind and mute was brought to him [Jesus], and he healed him, so that the man spoke and saw. And all the people were amazed, and said, "Can this be son of David?" But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, "It is only by Beelzebul, the prince of demons, that this man casts out demons." Knowing their thoughts, he said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and no city or house divided against itself will stand. And if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? And if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges. But if it is by the Spirit of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. Or how can someone enter a strongman's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? Then indeed he may plunder his house. Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters.

- Blind and mute people stay blind if no one casts out the demons.
- Deliverance causes division in Satan's kingdom so it is destroyed.
- Religious leaders will often have so many of their own agendas that they automatically rejected God agendas.
- When the Holy Spirit flows through you, that's when the Kingdom of Heaven has come upon you and the demons have to leave.
- The demon in charge has to be dealt with first so you can empty the house in order to deliver them. (Emptying the house is getting rid of all spirits. Jesus call a persons body a "house" which means we have many rooms in our soul). The demon in charge is the "stronghold" spirit and usually is the root problem".

Matthew 12:43 "When the unclean spirit has gone out of a person, it passes through dry places seeking rest, but finds none. Then it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' And when it comes, it finds the house empty, swept, and put in order. Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and dwell there, and the last state of that person is worse than the first. So also will it be with this evil generation."

- Demons have a habit of trying to return after they leave.
- The person is responsible for keeping their doors shut and their house filled with Jesus.
- There are seven different spirits each one more evil than the other. More demons = worse state.
- Jesus never left a person demonized just because there were some risks. He delivered, equipped and taught them how to stay free.

Matthew 16:22-23 And Peter took him [Jesus] aside and began to rebuke him, saying, “Far be it from you, Lord! This shall never happen to you.” But he turned and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance (or stumbling block) to me. For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man.”

- Peter's human flesh wanted Jesus to live which was partnering with the will of Satan. So Jesus rebuked the enemy out of Peter sensing he was under the influence of the devil.
- When the bible says “Satan” it basically means the Enemy. Some words mean “the accuser” and some words mean “the slanderer” and one word means “the Opposer”.

Matthew 17:14-21 And when they came to the crowd, a man came up to him and, kneeling before him, said, “Lord, have mercy on my son, for he has seizures and he suffers terribly. For often he falls into the fire, and often into the water. And I brought him to your disciples, and they could not heal him.” And Jesus answered, “O faithless and twisted generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him here to me.” And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him, and the boy was healed from that hour. Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, “Why could we not cast it out?” He said to them, “Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you. But this kind never comes out except by prayer and fasting.”

- New believers can struggle to drive out demons.
- It was not a coincidence the demons were throwing the boy into the fire and water. The demons were causing self harm.
- Jesus rebukes his own disciples when they cant deliver people.
- “From that hour” means it could have taken even Jesus time (up to 1 hour) to deliver the boy.
- The mountain moving is in relation to demons coming out. Jesus is talking about demonic strongholds coming down, not actual mountains.
- Fasting and praying is important. Probably focused more on the person delivering since this was a child.

Matthew 18:21-35 Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, “Lord, how many times shall I forgive my brother who sins against me? Up to seven times?”

Jesus answered, “I tell you, not just seven times, but seventy-seven times!

Because of this, the kingdom of heaven is like a king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants. As he began the settlements, a debtor was brought to him owing ten thousand talents. Since the man was unable to pay, the master ordered that he be sold to pay his debt, along with his wife and children and everything he owned.

Then the servant fell on his knees before him. ‘Have patience with me,’ he begged, ‘and I will pay back everything.’

His master had compassion on him, forgave his debt, and released him.

But when that servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii. He grabbed him and began to choke him, saying, ‘Pay back what you owe me!’

So his fellow servant fell down and begged him, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you back.’

But he refused. Instead, he went and had the man thrown into prison until he could pay his debt.

When his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and recounted all of this to their master.

Then the master summoned him and declared, ‘You wicked servant! I forgave all your debt because you begged me. Shouldn’t you have had mercy on your fellow servant, just as I had on you?’ In anger his master handed him over to the jailers to be tortured, until he should repay all that he owed. That is how My heavenly Father will treat each of you unless you forgive your brother from your heart.”

- There are different versions of the verse 34: “delivered him to the tormentors” (KJV), “delivered him to the torturers” (NKJV) “handed him over to the jailers to be tortured” (NIV) “turned him over to the jailers to be tortured” (BSB) “sent the man to prison to be tortured (NLT). These “tormentors/jailers” are evil and unclean spirits
- If the christian (the servant) does not forgive people he will stay in prison and be tormented by something that never sleeps (demons never sleep). They torment day and night.
- The ESV version footnotes will tell you the word “jailers” they use is translated to “torturers” in Greek
- Only Christians can be a servant whose been forgiven a great debt by the King
- When he forgives, then he qualifies for deliverance.

Mark 1:21-28 And they went into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath he entered the synagogue and was teaching. And they were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one who had authority, and not as the scribes. And immediately there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit. And he cried out, “What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are – the Holy One of God. But Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silent, and come out of him!” And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying out with a loud voice, came out of him. And they were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, “What is this? A new teaching and with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him.” And at once his fame spread everywhere throughout all the surrounding region of Galilee.

- We should teach as one who has authority like Christ.
- Demons knew who Jesus was immediately while the human race (the disciples) took 1 year to work that out. The word “demon” means “intelligence”.
- Jesus did not withhold deliverance in the middle of a church service.
- Even the best deliverer (Jesus) still had people convulsing and shaking during deliverance, so we might also.

- Even when Jesus told the spirit to come out quietly, it still came out screaming “crying out with a loud voice”. Some deliverance's are silent, but not all.

Mark 3:14 And he appointed twelve (whom he also named apostles) so that they might be with him and he might send them out to preach and have authority to cast out demons.

- Apostles mean “leader of leaders” it also translates to “sent person”
- Jesus didn't send them out just to preach with words but to heal and cast out demons.
- Jesus never changed His ministry

Mark 5:6-13 When the man saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and fell on his knees before Him. And he shouted in a loud voice, “What do You want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You before God not to torture me!” For Jesus had already declared, “Come out of this man, you unclean spirit!”

“What is your name?” Jesus asked.

“My name is Legion,” he replied, “for we are many.” And he begged Jesus repeatedly not to send them out of that region.

There on the nearby hillside a large herd of pigs was feeding. So the demons begged Jesus, “Send us to the pigs, so that we may enter them.”

He gave them permission, and the unclean spirits came out and went into the pigs, and the herd of about two thousand rushed down the steep bank into the sea and drowned in the water.

- This was not the man talking to Jesus, it was the demon inside the man talking
- Jesus talked to the spirit
- Jesus did not immediately tell the spirit to be silent. He asked its name. Knowing the name can be helpful because demons are like animals in this regard: you have more authority over a dog when you know it's name. It knows it is being targeted and you are talking to it.

Mark 9:38-41 John said to him, “Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us.” But Jesus said, “Do not stop him, for no one who does a miracle in my name can in the next moment speak evil of me. For the one who is not against us is for us. For truly, I say to you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ will by no means lose his reward.

- Casting out demons is a mighty work. Another translation calls it a miracle
- Jesus is suggesting that casting out demons, or even a cup or water given to a disciple, will be rewarded (Heavenly reward).
- Even with very little bible knowledge and experience, Jesus still wanted that man to do deliverance because he was expressing the gospel and love of God.

Mark 16:17-20 And these signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues; they will pick up serpents with their hands; and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover.” So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the message by accompanying signs.

- Casting out demons is the first sign of a believer
- Signs and wonders should follow the gospel

Luke 4:18 “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He has anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor. He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set the oppressed free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor.”

- God's mission was all about opening peoples eyes spiritually as well as in the natural
- Demons deafen peoples ears so they cannot hear
- The captives were everyone under the influence of Satan

Luke 4:40-41 At sunset, all who were ill with various diseases were brought to Jesus, and laying His hands on each one, He healed them. Demons also came out of many people, shouting, “You are the Son of God!” But He rebuked the demons and would not allow them to speak, because they knew He was the Christ.

- It's obvious the physically sick had demons
- Jesus didn't want the demons preaching the gospel (the demons were just trying to be clever).

Luke 9:1-6 And he called the twelve together and gave them power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases, and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal. And he said to them, “Take nothing for your journey, no staff, nor bag, nor bread, nor money; and do not have two tunics. And wherever they do not receive you, when you leave that town shake off the dust from your feet as a testimony against them.” And they departed and went through the villages, preaching the gospel and healing everywhere.

- Jesus never sent out a single missionary without teaching and demonstrating deliverance.
- Jesus gave spiritual power and authority over the demons.
- The word reveals God prefers to co-labor with us rather than do everything himself. He co-laborers with his disciples. Action on our part needs to take place. He is all Sovereign, but still gives us choice. Because God gave Adam authority over the earth and animals, he likes to partner with us when He's moving on the earth.

Luke 10:1-12 After this, the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them two by two ahead of Him to every town and place He was about to visit. And He told them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into His harvest. Go! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Carry no purse or bag or sandals. Do not greet anyone along the road.

Whatever house you enter, begin by saying, ‘Peace to this house.’ If a man of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; if not, it will return to you. Stay at the same house, eating and drinking whatever you are offered. For the worker is worthy of his wages. Do not move around from house to house.

If you enter a town and they welcome you, eat whatever is set before you. Heal the sick who are there and tell them, ‘The kingdom of God is near you.’

But if you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go into the streets and declare, ‘Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off as a testimony against you. Yet be sure of this: The kingdom of God is near.’ I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town.

- The mission Jesus gave meant there may be some danger (wolves)
- If someone offers you food or an offering because you've done work, receive it
- Every time someone receives healing and deliverance, the Kingdom of Heaven has come to Earth
- Jesus confirms Sodom and Gomorrah were actually destroyed in the Old Testament and people who have an opportunity to receive the gospel but don't will have even more regret when they realize what they've lost
- Don't bring rejection with you to the next person

Luke 10:17-20 The seventy-two returned with joy and said, “Lord, even the demons submit to us in Your name.” So He told them, “I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Behold, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. Nothing will harm you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.”

- Casting out demons brings joy
- Jesus confirms He used to live in Heaven
- Jesus refers to Satan's Kingdom being made up of snakes and scorpions (which He is referring to the demons being snakes and scorpions) and he gives us authority over these.
- The fact you are saved is better than casting out demons (Jesus calls those doing his will are the ones who are saved – see Matthew 7:21)

Luke 11:20 But if I drive out demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.

- When someone is delivered, the Kingdom of God has come upon you
- Not only does darkness leave, but light comes in

Luke 13:31-32 At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to him, “Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you.” And he said to them, “Go and tell that fox, ‘Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I finish my course.’”

- Jesus, when talking about Herod, says He is unashamed and proud He is doing deliverance even to the non-Christians.
- Jesus was not intimidated by the authority figures
- Jesus used the feminine word of “fox” in Greek

John 14: 30 I will not speak with you much longer, for the prince of this world is coming, and he has nothing in me.

- Satan has nothing in common with Jesus which means he has no legal right or foothold to enter Jesus.
- Satan tried to reach an agreement with Jesus when he was led into the desert to be tempted. Jesus said no 3x. Judas did have some things in common with Satan and he was able to enter Judas before the betrayal (his problem was with money).

Acts 5:12-16 The apostles performed many signs and wonders among the people, and with one accord the believers gathered together in Solomon’s Colonnade. Although the people regarded them highly, no one else dared to join them. Yet more and more believers were brought to the Lord—large numbers of both men and women.

As a result, people brought the sick into the streets and laid them on cots and mats, so that at least Peter’s shadow might fall on some of them as he passed by. Crowds also gathered from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those tormented by unclean spirits, and all of them were healed.

- The people made a special effort to round up every one who was sick and demonized. The people had compassion for the sick and demonized and today we don't even see people inviting friends to church
- We have a responsibility to find the sick and demonized and bring them to Jesus

Acts 8: 7-8 With loud shrieks, unclean spirits came out of many who were possessed, and many of the paralyzed and lame were healed. So there was great joy in that city.

- Deliverance brings physical healing
- Freedom and deliverance bring joy

Acts 8:9-25 Prior to that time, a man named Simon had practiced sorcery in the city and astounded the people of Samaria. He claimed to be someone great, and all the people, from the least to the greatest, heeded his words and said, “This man is the divine power called the Great Power.” They paid close attention to him because he had astounded them for a long time with his sorcery.

But when they believed Philip as he preached the gospel of the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. Even Simon himself believed and was baptized. He followed Philip closely and was astounded by the great signs and miracles he observed.

When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them. On their arrival, they prayed for them to receive the Holy Spirit. For the Holy Spirit had not yet fallen upon any of them; they had simply been baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. Then Peter and John laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

When Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles’ hands, he offered them money. “Give me this power as well,” he said, “so that everyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit.”

But Peter replied, “May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could buy the gift of God with money! You have no part or share in our ministry, because your heart is not right before God. Repent, therefore, of your wickedness, and pray to the Lord. Perhaps He will forgive you for the intent of your heart. For I see that you are poisoned by bitterness and captive to iniquity.”

- Even though Simon believed and was baptized his motives were wrong and that disqualified him from being delivered and a disciple.
- Simon and the whole city realized that Simon's power was inferior until they saw the power of the Holy Spirit and the whole town was led astray by Simon's sorcery.
- We must repent

Acts 10:37-38 You yourselves know what has happened throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee with the baptism that John proclaimed: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, and how Jesus went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, because God was with Him.

- When God and His anointing is with you, you bring healing
- The word “Healing” in Greek is “Sozo” which means saved, healed and delivered all in the one word
- If God is with us, shouldn't we do the same thing Jesus does?

- When Jesus healed people, they were also oppressed by the devil. This means sickness is demonic. If its from the Kingdom of Darkness, we have authority over it.

Acts 16:16-19 One day as we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave girl with a spirit of divination, who earned a large income for her masters by fortune-telling. This girl followed Paul and the rest of us, shouting, “These men are servants of the Most High God, who are proclaiming to you the way of salvation!” She continued this for many days. Eventually Paul grew so aggravated that he turned and said to the spirit, “In the name of Jesus Christ I command you to come out of her!” And the spirit left her at that very moment.

- People think it was a demon speaking through her, but that snake spirit (“Python” in Greek) gives people a demonic gift so they have an insight and understanding of the spirit realm. So the demon gives her the ability to see and discern in the spirit these men were from God and telling people how to be saved.
- If the disciples were not discerning they could have asked her to join their ministry and Satan would have had his servant in the ministry.
- This girl was a victim and was set free

Acts 19:11-12 God did extraordinary miracles through the hands of Paul, so that even handkerchiefs and aprons that had touched him were taken to the sick, and the diseases and evil spirits left them.

- This tells us the anointing is transferable (if the anointing is that strong)
- Demons coming out of the sick is not a coincidence. The sickest people had demons coming out of them. Sickness is demonic.

Acts 19:13-20 Now there were some itinerant Jewish exorcists who tried to invoke the name of the Lord Jesus over those with evil spirits. They would say, “I bind you by Jesus, whom Paul proclaims.” Seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this. Eventually, one of the evil spirits answered them, “Jesus I know, and I know about Paul, but who are you?” Then the man with the evil spirit jumped on them and overpowered them all. The attack was so violent that they ran out of the house naked and wounded. This became known to all the Jews and Greeks living in Ephesus, and fear came over all of them. So the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honor. Many who had believed now came forward, confessing and disclosing their deeds. And a number of those who had practiced magic arts brought their books and burned them in front of everyone. When the value of the books was calculated, the total came to fifty thousand drachmas. So the word of the Lord powerfully continued to spread and prevail.

- This was a failed deliverance/attempt
- The whole Jewish world thought the Priest was prophets of God and saw the disciples as illegitimate, but the demon confirmed that mans religious hierarchy means nothing in the spirit realm. Jesus and his disciples were validated as being God's true messengers. So the religious order in Ephesus was turned upside down.

- The sinners repented of secret sin and brought their witchcraft and books and materials and burned it all in a bonfire. So Greeks and Jews repented and got saved. This shows us deliverance can bring mass repentance.
- When doing God's will you can gain a reputation with the demonic and Satan (they know who Jesus and Paul was)

1 Samuel 16:14-16 After the Spirit of the LORD had departed from Saul, a spirit of distress from the LORD began to torment him. Saul's servants said to him, "Surely a spirit of distress from God is tormenting you. Let our lord command your servants here to seek out someone who can skillfully play the harp. Whenever the spirit of distress from God is upon you, he is to play it, and you will be well."

- If someone rejects the spirit of God they can end up with other spirits in place of God's spirit.
- Not only a person, but when a tribe or nation rejects God, spirits can come in the void (ex. A post christian culture can end up more demonized than a culture that never knew God.

2 Samuel 22:20 He rescued me, because he delighted in me.

- Purity and righteousness brings deliverance. Have nothing in common with the enemy.
- Sin and displeasing God can lead to open doors for evil spirits to enter.

2 Chronicles 18:20-22 Then a spirit came forward, stood before the LORD, and said, 'I will entice him.' 'By what means?' asked the LORD. And he replied, 'I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouths of all his prophets.' 'You will surely entice him and prevail,' said the LORD. 'Go and do it.' So you see, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouths of these prophets of yours, and the LORD has pronounced disaster against you."

- It seems like there are spirits in Heaven that can occasionally be sent to earth, but it is unlikely an evil spirit.
- This was most likely a good spirit that temporarily was used to give false prophecy to 400 prophets so Ahab would be killed.

Job 1:6-12 One day the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came with them.

"Where have you come from?" said the LORD to Satan.

"From roaming through the earth," he replied, "and walking back and forth in it."

Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered My servant Job? For there is no one on earth like him, a man who is blameless and upright, who fears God and shuns evil."

Satan answered the LORD, "Does Job fear God for nothing? Have You not placed a hedge on every side around him and his household and all that he owns? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land. But stretch out Your hand and strike all that he has, and he will surely curse You to Your face.”

“Very well,” said the LORD to Satan. “Everything he has is in your hands, but you must not lay a hand on the man himself.”

Then Satan went out from the presence of the LORD.

- Notice Satan appeared as one of the angels of light and Satan and God have almost a casual conversation. Based on this conversation they have had a lot and long history.
- Earth is Satan's main dwelling place so he roams through it (like a lion whom he may devour – see 1 Peter 5:8)
- Satan is always looking for a legal right or open door into someones life.
- There was already a spiritual protection in place automatically over Job and his family
- Satan is a legal expert always looking for a loop hole to attack.
- Notice one of the first things Satan brings is sickness and death and poverty.

Psalm 51:10 Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me.

- This is talking about the human spirit. It is important we have this heart posture

Psalm 58:4-5 The wicked are estranged from the womb; the liars go astray from birth. Their venom is like the venom of a snake, like a cobra that shuts its ears, refusing to hear the tune of the charmer who skillfully weaves his spell.

- Liars are like a snake with poisonous venom and while one is sinning, their ears are spiritually blocked to hear the truth and conviction
- This is a warning of the dangers of sin, which can also open doors to the enemy.

Isaiah 61:3 [He has sent me] to console the mourners in Zion—to give them a crown of beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, and a garment of praise for a spirit of despair.

- A person who has a spirit of despair needs to attack that spirit by coming in the opposite spirit and pursuing God. This looks like praising God instead and even though you are in despair.

Romans 8:38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor principalities, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

- This scripture mentions angels are not the same as demons. (2 different words = 2 different meanings)
- Why would a good angel want to separate you from the love of God? It's talking about fallen angels.

- Nothing can separate us from the love of God. No amount of demons or fallen angels can separate you from God's love.

1 Corinthians 5:1-8 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that is intolerable even among pagans: A man has his father's wife. And you are proud! Shouldn't you rather have been stricken with grief and have removed from your fellowship the man who did this? Although I am absent from you in body, I am present with you in spirit, and I have already pronounced judgment on the one who did this, just as if I were present. When you are assembled in the name of our Lord Jesus and I am with you in spirit, along with the power of the Lord Jesus, hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved on the Day of the Lord.

Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven works through the whole batch of dough? Get rid of the old leaven, that you may be a new unleavened batch, as you really are. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. Therefore let us keep the feast, not with the old bread, leavened with malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and of truth.

- It's a false teaching that Christians can't judge the church. As you can see Paul kicked the man out of the church and as soon as he is handed over to Satan, he will set sick and/or diseased (destruction of his flesh) and possibly die. Paul's hope is that his soul might be saved in the end.
- When Satan attacks the physical, flesh gets destroyed (sickness)
- Christian's think they are going to be safe and entitled to protection just because they are a christian, but you can see this man was entitled to destruction

1 Corinthians 12:7-10 Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good. To one there is given through the Spirit the message of wisdom, to another the message of knowledge by the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by that one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another distinguishing between spirits, to another speaking in various tongues, and to still another the interpretation of tongues.

- We want to focus on the 3rd last one here. There's a special gift called the discernment between spirits. This person is like a hound dog on demons. They can detect and determine which spirits are in which persons and which spirit is behind different words that are said.

2 Corinthians 11:3-14 I am afraid, however, that just as Eve was deceived by the serpent's cunning, your minds may be led astray from your simple and pure devotion to Christ. For if someone comes and proclaims a Jesus other than the One we proclaimed, or if you receive a different spirit than the One you received, or a different gospel than the one you accepted, you put up with it way too easily.

- We have false teachers preaching a different gospel and when the people believe it they receive a different spirit. This also goes for cults and false religions. They need deliverance because they submitted under a false religion. (ex. Someone coming out of Hinduism will need deliverance from Hindu spirits and a christian coming out of a legalistic church may need deliverance from a spirit of legalism. This also applies to someone in a cult will most likely have a cult spirit).

- This was written to the church of Corinth which proves Christians can have demons.

2 Corinthians 12:5-10 I will boast about such a man, but I will not boast about myself, except in my weaknesses. Even if I wanted to boast, I would not be a fool, because I would be speaking the truth. But I refrain, so no one will credit me with more than he sees in me or hears from me, or because of these surpassingly great revelations.

So to keep me from becoming conceited, I was given a thorn in my flesh, a messenger of Satan, to torment me. Three times I pleaded with the Lord to take it away from me. But He said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for My power is perfected in weakness.” Therefore I will boast all the more gladly in my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest on me. That is why, for the sake of Christ, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

- The word for “messenger” is the same word for “angel” (fallen angel in this case)
- This is one of the most misunderstood verses in the bible. The old theologians thought it was almost blasphemy Paul could have a demon because he was like a Saint.
- Even a Christian who is doing God's will can be attacked by a messenger of Satan (fallen angel)
- Technically a demon can be a messenger too
- It never says the thorn was from God, but rather God says “my grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in your weakness” (see 2 Corinthians 12:9)

Galations 4:3-7 So also, when we were children, we were enslaved under the basic principles of the world. But when the time had fully come, God sent His Son, born of a woman, born under the law, to redeem those under the law, that we might receive our adoption as sons. And because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying, “Abba, Father!” So you are no longer a slave, but a son; and since you are a son, you are also an heir through God.

- We were all born into sin and slavery and therefore all need Christ
- We once were slaves in Satan's kingdom (in Matthew 4:8-9 Satan offers the kingdoms of the world BACK to Jesus, meaning he will return the people under his dominion. This tells us that we were all once in the kingdom of darkness. So when we get saved and come into the kingdom of light, there are chains that may need to be broken. Romans 3:23 also tells us “all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God. So we all have darkness and sin we need to repent of and turn away from.

1 Timothy 4:1-5 Now the Spirit expressly states that in later times some will abandon the faith to follow deceitful spirits and the teachings of demons, influenced by the hypocrisy of liars, whose consciences are seared with a hot iron.

They will prohibit marriage and require abstinence from certain foods that God has created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. For every creation of God is good, and nothing that is received with thanksgiving should be rejected, because it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

- People abandoned faith to deceitful spirits (with out knowing it)
- If you read this in Greek, its the demons that have no conscience (no moral compass)
- Demons will start cults by influencing people to teach weird teachings

Hebrews 4:12 For the word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it pierces even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow. It judges the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

- Soul and spirit are different words in Hebrew. The word of God is like a sword able to split these two things. It's able to separate whats demonic from your spirit and soul.
- The word of God convicts humans of their evil ways.
- It's believed demons occupy the soul region and God occupies the spirit region.

1 John 1:5 And this is the message we have heard from Him and announce to you: God is light, and in Him there is no darkness at all.

- We should become filled with the same light and empty ourselves from darkness taking away Satan's foothold so the enemy can't come in.

1 John 3:8-10 The one who practices sin is of the devil, because the devil has been sinning from the very start. This is why the Son of God was revealed, to destroy the works of the devil. Anyone born of God refuses to practice sin, because God's seed abides in him; he cannot go on sinning, because he has been born of God. By this the children of God are distinguished from the children of the devil: Anyone who does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is anyone who does not love his brother.

- He who sins is in agreement with the specific demon behind that sin. (ex. Lying = a lying spirit, abortion = Moloch spirit, sexual sin = sexual spirits like lust, perversion etc.)
- Living a holy life is proof you really are God's child.
- Destroying what Satan has done is listed as the main reason why Jesus had come to earth (see Isaiah 53)
- If this was Jesus' ministry, our ministry should look similar to Jesus'

1 John 4:6 We are from God, and whoever knows God listens to us; but whoever is not from God does not listen to us. This is how we recognize the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

- There is a spirit called a spirit of "Error"

- We have come across the Spirit of Error in deliverance's and it causes false prophecy and false gifts and leads people astray

Revelation 2:21 But I have this against you: You tolerate that Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. By her teaching she misleads My servants to be sexually immoral and to eat food sacrificed to idols. Even though I have given her time to repent of her immorality, she is unwilling.

- Jezebel thinks of herself as a prophetess of God, not a false prophet. She leads people astray by manipulation, seduction, control and false accusation to get her way within and outside of the church.
- Jezebel is obviously a spirit because she was a woman in the Old Testament so she shouldn't be alive in the book of Revelations unless she was a spirit being.
- God rebukes the church for allowing Jezebel to function. So when we see the demonic at work in the church we are expected to shut it down or kick it out.
- God gives his people time to repent (He gave Jezebel time).

The Following Verses Focus on Spiritual Warfare Which are Key Verses in Deliverance and the Ministry of Jesus:

What can we learn from these verses?

Isaiah 42:6-7 “I, the LORD, have called you for a righteous purpose, and I will take hold of your hand. I will keep you and appoint you to be a covenant for the people and a light to the nations, to open the eyes of the blind, to free the captives from prison and to release from the dungeon those who sit in darkness.

- There's a difference between a prisoner and a captive.
- A prisoner is a sinner who ends up in prison because he has broken the law. A captive is a prisoner against his will, but they are still in a prison.
- Jesus was setting free people who were both prisoners and captives. Again, this is our ministry and mission.

Matthew 16:19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.”

- To bind means to restrict. To loose means to set free.
- Whatever strongman you bind in a person will be bound in the Heavenly realms. Whoever you set free on earth will be set free in the Heavenly realms.
- Without the keys to the Kingdom we would not be able to have any affect on the spirit realm. Jesus gave us these keys.

John 8:32 “Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”

- Lies keep you in bondage to the spirit that told you the lie because you believe in it.
- Knowing the truth will help you break free from bondage
- Knowing and believing the truth is the only way to be set free. So you must make the lie (and sin) your enemy. (ex. Rejection, unworthiness, guilt, and shame)
- Anything you believe about yourself that God doesn't believe about you is under the direct influence of a lie.

John 8:44 You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language (of his own kJV), for he is a liar and the father of lies.

- The Devil is a liar. Don't believe in the lies.

- If you believe in the lies, you are believing in Satan, and not God.

John 10:10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.

- The “thief” is a key word because the enemy comes to steal things from you like a thief. (ex. Happiness, joy, marriages, families, children off parents, your health, your sanity).
- Deliverance stops the evil spirits sent by Satan from stealing from you.

1 Corinthians 2:4-5 “My message and my preaching were not with persuasive words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit’s power, so that your faith would not rest on men’s wisdom, but on God’s power.”

- Paul wanted your faith to be strong by seeing deliverance and miracles because it was proof of the whole gospel.
- People who don't experience the power of God in any form can have weaker faith and often a lesser disciple and more likely to become lukewarm.
- Modern day preaching is full of persuasive words but very little anointing and Holy Spirit power. Some need to get back to the same power they had in the book of Acts.
- Deliverance was a normal practice in the days of the early church and should be the same today!

1 Corinthians 3:9 For we are laborers together with God; you are God’s field, God’s building.

- The fact that we are co-laborers is very important as most believers pray that God does everything for them when scripture shows that the disciples had to actually go out and drive out demons themselves with God's spirit.
- People try to pass responsibility on to God's sovereignty instead of going out themselves and taking authority over the enemy

2 Corinthians 4:4 The god of this age has blinded the minds of unbelievers so they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.

- People aren't lost because they're just sinners. They are also being blinded
- We have found that there are blinding and blocking spirits that keep people lost in the dark, until they are set free.
- These blocking spirits spiritually block they're eyes from seeing, their ears from hearing, and their mind from understanding the gospel and the word of God. They can read the whole bible and it doesn't affect them or change them in any way.

2 Corinthians 5:13 If we are “out of our mind,” as some say, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you.

- People will accuse you of being crazy or daft.

2 Corinthians 10:3-5 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not the weapons of the world. Instead, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. We tear down imaginations, and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God; and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.

- Any thought that pops into your hear from the enemy is your responsibility to take it captive and cast it down and make it obedient to the word of God.
- We have weapons that we are supposed to use which is God's way of destroying Satan's kingdom, through us as co-laborers.
- The word “stronghold” means a fortress
- We are accountable to God to use the spiritual weapons we were given.
- Your enemy may not be a person, but demons behind the person. (ex. Behind Hilter there were many spirits including a spirit of anti-Christ.) Love the person, hate the demons.

Ephesians 4:27 Do not let the sun set upon your anger, and do not give the devil a foothold.

- Foothold in Greek is “topos” meaning “an inhabitable place”. So don't give Satan and evil sprits an inhabitable space.
- Spirits are disembodied beings (once had bodies). They need a body or else they feel exposed. They also use human bodies to carry out their agendas. If they don't have a body they cannot carry out it's sin, desires, or appetites.
- When you have lasting anger it gives birth to a root of bitterness. This bitter root of resentment is like a foothold that the enemy can use. It is also a legal right.

Ephesians 5:8-14 For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light, for the fruit of the light consists in all goodness, righteousness, and truth. Test and prove what pleases the Lord.

Have no fellowship with the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather expose them. For it is shameful even to mention what the disobedient do in secret. But everything exposed by the light becomes visible, for everything that is illuminated becomes a light itself. So it is said: “Wake up, O sleeper, rise up from the dead, and Christ will shine on you.”

- Sin is a form of darkness – have no fellowship with deeds of darkness, but expose darkness.

- Only what is exposed by the Light is visible. When parts of your soul (rooms) are filled with God's light, they now give off light.
- Jesus says “you are the light of this world” (see Matthew 5:14) This is a transformation of the soul from darkness to light. It's hard to remove demons when your full of darkness yourself. You need the light to remove darkness.

Ephesians 5:25-27 Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave Himself up for her to sanctify her, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word, and to present her to Himself as a glorious church, without stain or wrinkle or any such blemish, but holy and blameless.

- Jesus doesn't want to marry Jezebel, or Anti-Christ or witchcraft. So in order for the bride (us) to be ready, Jezebel and every other evil spirit needs to be cast out.
- Deliverance is cleansing of the soul which strips spirits of their demonic appetites.
- Deliverance needs to come out of a place of love.

Ephesians 6:10-12 Finally, be strong in the Lord and in His mighty power. Put on the full armor of God, so that you can make your stand against the devil's schemes. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this world's darkness, and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.

- When it says the rulers of this world people think of Kings not realizing the Kings are being influenced by the demons in the heavenly realm.
- There are multiple heavens, 3 mentioned in the bible. Earth is the first heaven, God's Kingdom is the the third heaven, and the second is in between. The bible refers to demons being in the second heaven. (See Daniel 10 – an angel left heaven and had to fight through the second heaven and had to fight fallen angels on the way to earth and back to heaven)

Ephesians 6:13-17 Therefore take up the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you will be able to stand your ground, and having done everything, to stand. Stand firm then, with the belt of truth buckled around your waist, with the breastplate of righteousness arrayed, and with your feet fitted with the readiness of the gospel of peace. In addition to all this, take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. And take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

- Day of evil – times with rampant sin and temptation.
- Flaming arrows – Thoughts that come from the Devil, flames spread if they are not extinguished quickly. Be sure to block them (lies from the enemy)
- If you believe Satan's lies over God's truth, you have not used your shield of faith and now you will be hit with fiery darts.
- God's word is a sword, not only the bible – the “Rhema” word of God (the spoken word of God for the “now”)

- The helmet shields your mind, the breastplate your heart. Each piece protects a different part of your being.

Colossians 1:13 For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

- Legally we are in the Kingdom of light, but the old kingdom of darkness still has some influence as much as you let it.

2 Timothy 1:7 For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power, love, and a sound mind.

- The word “spirit” translates to “breath”. It's always referring to a being. The bible says Paul may have been visited by a spirit and given special revelations. Other references always refer to a being as well such as a lying spirit or a spirit of heaviness.
- F.E.A.R.= False. Experience. Appearing. Real. Also: Face. Everything. And. Rise.
- You won't have a sound mind with a spirit of fear and you can't make good decisions with fear. You end up making a string of bad decisions with fear motivating you. (ex. Not preaching the gospel because of fear of man)

James 1:22-25 Be doers of the word, and not hearers only. Otherwise, you are deceiving yourselves. For anyone who hears the word but does not carry it out is like a man who looks at his face in a mirror, and after observing himself goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. But the one who looks intently into the perfect law of freedom, and continues to do so—not being a forgetful hearer, but an effective doer—he will be blessed in what he does.

- When you read the word of God you need to walk away changed and act on it. Otherwise you are forgetting who you are and what your purpose is.
- If you ignore deliverance and casting out evil spirits, you are not a doer of the word.

James 4: 6 But He gives us more grace. This is why it says: “God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble.”

- Pride can be a legal right to a spirit, especially to the spirit of pride.
- Submitting to God includes repentance and forgiving others and dying to self.

James 4:7-8 Submit yourselves, then, to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

- Submitting to God's ways is the first step to resisting the Devil because it's God's ways or the Devil's.

- Resisting is the second step to being delivered. This battle of continuing to resist can last for years. Casting out the spirit can save you a few extra years of this battle.

1 John 1:5 This is the message we have heard from him and declare to you: God is light; in him there is no darkness at all.

- We are called to be imitators of God, so if we can empty ourselves of everything that is dark, God can fill us more with his light.
- With more light we can remove more darkness.

1 John 3:8 The one who practices sin is of the devil, because the devil has been sinning from the very start. This is why the Son of God was revealed, to destroy the works of the devil.

- He who sins is in agreement with that specific demon over that sin.
- Destroying the works of the Devil is the main ministry of Jesus.

Different Ways Demons Manifest:

There are different ways you will see demons manifest. Here are a list of the ways people can manifest as they're being delivered and what to do in each situation.

1. The Legal Battle/the Court Case

- This is a case where the spirits have many legal rights so your time is spent uncovering the open doors and removing the legal rights

2. The Tissue Box

- After many spirits leave, still more keeps coming out. Every time one is removed, another comes up. (hint- check for strongman)

3. The Exorcism

- LOUD and intense. Can be big convulsions or the person can get violent.

4. The Silent Exit

- Yawns out easily

5. The PP (Perfectly Possessed)

- The spirits won't come out. The person is in agreement

6. The Textbook/ABC deliverance

- Answers seem accurate (spirits telling the truth-legal rights are removed quickly), spirits come out quickly. Step by step the person is fully delivered.

7. The Screamer

- Screams like a murder victim

8. The Weeper

- Weeps intensely (can be a sorrow, grief or sadness demon) or a very emotional person.

9. The Clown (Mocking Spirit)

- Laughs and mocks at you. Tells you you have no authority and belittles you.

10. The Scorpion Hands

- Hands tense up into the form of a scorpion claw.

11. The Mild Manifester

- Some mild shaking, body tingles or buzzes.

12. The Fire Spirit

- The person feels intense heat throughout their whole body. Check for a Molleck spirit.

Repent of abortion in the blood line and human sacrificing.

13. The Levitater

- The whole body tries to float or climb up walls. Usually one part of the body is still on the ground.

14. The Ice Spirit

- Feels like ice. Sometimes the person praying can feel the cold on the person. Check for a spirit of death or a verbal agreement.

15. The Invisible

- Nothing can be seen, but spirits escape fast.

How do you know when a Demon has left?

Demons leave through the mouth mainly. They can leave through the head, the hands and feet, and can even just float off. They usually live in the stomach, and some in the head, and as they come out they can manifest as we just discussed. If they live in the stomach it's common for the person being delivered to experience pressure in their stomach, which can work its way into pressure in the chest, then the throat. You can tell a spirit to leave and HOW to leave. If a spirit isn't coming out and the person is manifesting and you've gone through the conditions to be delivered, tell the spirit HOW to come out. You can tell it to "cough and come out", "yawn and come out" or to come out with the persons breathing. Yawning and burping are also common. Sometimes you have to tell the person to cough if they don't feel like coughing and that can dislodge a spirit if it is stuck in the throat. If it leaves from the head they can have a dizzy feeling in the head.

A person will usually know when a spirit has left because they feel lighter like a weight has lifted off of them and they will feel freedom in the areas they felt pain and bondage to. This can look like having a clear mind with out bombarding thoughts like fear and suicidal thoughts. Deliverance can also remove chronic pain in the body if there is a spirit operating behind the pain and sickness. Some people will experience a sense of peace and may receive an image of Jesus or light and feel the presence of the Holy Spirit upon them.

If a spirit isn't coming out, you need to dig deeper into repentance, the lies the person is believing in and which sins they are still partnering with. There may be a legal right which we will cover below. If a spirit still isn't leaving, check for a stubborn spirit.

Stages to Deliverance

There are 7 important stages to go through in the deliverance process. One helpful way to remembering is knowing the 7 R's: Repent, Release, Replace, Renounce(Reject), Remove, Rebuke, Renew

REPENT (your sins) RELEASE (unforgiveness) REPLACE (lies with the truth) RENOUNCE (agreements and word curses) REMOVE (cursed items) REBUKE (evil spirits) RENEW (your mind)

Lets go through each step:

1. Repent.

To repent means to “change the way you think” and turn a complete 180 degrees. If you were walking in a field and you knew there was a land mine right in front of you, you would turn completely around and walk in the opposite direction. What you truly believe can change the direction you walk in. This is the same awareness we need to avoid sin and temptations which can be placed like traps by Satan. So repentance is asking God for forgiveness and choosing to turn from the act of sin.

We need to look at every area of our lives all the way back to childhood. If you see certain areas in your parents or grandparents life, it is a good idea to repent on behalf of them as spirits are almost always passed onto the next generation, christian or not. Time does not cover sin. Only the blood of Jesus APPLIED. Each sin was committed individually, so it needs to be repented of individually. This can be a lot to think of all at once. So here is a list of different areas to focus in on:

Different areas of sin:

1. Behaviors (anger, laziness, gossip, control, immorality, stubbornness, lying etc.)
2. Witchcraft (tarot cards, ouija boards, palm reading, crystal therapy, etc.)
3. Sexual Sins (lust, perversion, homo/heterosexual thoughts, pornography, incubus, succubus)
4. Word Curses (oaths made by our words towards our selves or others, ex “I am useless”, etc.)
5. False god Worship (idolatry, Hindu spirits through yoga, ancestors worshiping Raw...)
6. Doubt and Unbelief
7. Negative Emotions (regret, suicidal thoughts, shame and guilt, sadness, fear)
8. Actions (stealing, self harm, adultery, food addictions)
9. Omission (the sin of not doing what we should have done, ex) not loving our child or spouse, apathy)

If you still feel like you have spiritual and/or emotional connections with an x partner such as an x wife, x husband, boyfriend, girlfriend, best friend, it means there may be a soul tie. This connection should be severed in the spirit because demons can transfer through soul ties. Mark 10:8 tells us “Two flesh will become one flesh.’ So they are no longer two, but one flesh”

Write down the people you need to forgive and the soul ties you need to let go.

3. Replace.

Satan is known as the “father of lies”. Ephesians 6:16 talks about how we need to raise up our shield of faith to block the fiery darts of the enemy. These fiery darts are Satan's lies. The reason they're called fiery darts is because if it's not quickly extinguished by the truth, the lie will spread quickly causing destruction. If we are believers of Jesus, but are believing in what Satan says about us, then who are we really believing in? Everything that you think about yourself that God doesn't think about you is under the direct influence of a lie. Proverbs 23:7 says “for as he thinks in his heart, so is he.” So this is saying what you really believe about yourself will manifest into your real life experiences. So if you feel rejected and believe you're rejected, then you will start to act rejected and you will actually self sabotage and destroy your relationships so that others reject you because you are manifesting and reinforcing your reality. And this can become a cycle.

So are you believing in God's truth, or the Devil's lies? It is important to know our identity in Christ and not listen to Satan's lies. The Devil comes to steal, kill, and destroy. Lets not let the Devil rob us of our identity and freedom in Christ and lets raise up that shield against our enemy and fight with the sword of the spirit given to us. John 8:32 says “If you continue in My word, you are truly My disciples. Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”

and burned them in front of everyone.” Deuteronomy 7:26 also says “Do not bring a detestable thing into your house or you, like it, will be set apart for destruction.”

Based on scripture, we want to make sure we have removed cursed items and/or objects that have roots in demonic rituals or spiritual practices. This can be a witchcraft books, taro cards, totem poles, dream catchers, or crystals etc. Keep in mind, not every item like a crystal is cursed, but if it was used for a spiritual practice like witchcraft, it is cursed. So we don't want to be over spiritual and assume every item is cursed and that we can't be delivered until the item is removed, however when it doubt, throw it out.

So we recommend you do a “spring cleaning” and make sure you don't have any cursed items as it can be an open door to demons. Just like in the book of Acts, make yourself a fire and get rid of any items that is rooted in demonic practices.

6. Rebuke.

It is important in this step to know your authority. The bible tells us that Jesus has given US authority to cast out demons. Demons do not leave when you kindly ask them them to leave. Demons know the level of authority you carry. If you do not believe the spirit will come out, it simply wont. But if you tell the spirit you have authority over it and command the spirit to leave with confidence and in the Name of Jesus, the demon will eventually leave. If your neighbors dog kept coming to your front door step and doing its business, your wouldn't say “Fluffy, can you please leave?” you would say “FLUFFY! GET OUT OF HERE! NOW! GO!”. You also have more authority over a dog when you know its name. Calling out a spirit by its name is exposing the demon. Evil spirits can be stubborn. So you will have to rebuke repeatedly. Sometimes you need to repeat yourself many times before the person being delivered experiences any form of manifesting or freedom. If there isn't any break through you can try asking the demons to submit to the name of Jesus and ask how many spirits are there and what their names are. If they answer (for example “spirit of control”) get them to repent of controlling people and submitting under control to break the legal right and then continue casting it out. Jesus did this when he asked the demon “What is your name?” and the demon replied “Legion, for we are many.” (Mark 5:9). You can also ask the Holy Spirit to reveal a word of knowledge as to which demons are hiding.

Do NOT hit a person EVER. A demon is a spirit (Hebrew word for spirit: “pneuma” meaning “breath”). It is not a physical being, so you do not need to use physical force to get it out. What you can do is encourage the person to cough, yawn or blow it out and then tell the demon to come out with the coughs/yawns/blows.

Jesus was the Son of God and was filled with the Holy spirit without measure. The disciples sometimes had trouble getting certain demons out, so we might take time to get as good as Jesus was with deliverance. Keep this in mind when casting out evil spirits. We do carry the same Holy Spirit that rose Jesus up from the dead! Demons need to know YOU KNOW you have authority.

7. Renew.

It is very important to renew your mind. Romans 12:2 says “Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is – his good, pleasing and perfect will.” This step can be done before or after rebuking, but either way it needs to be done. You may find more break through in the deliverance if this step is done before, but sometimes spirits need to be cast out before you can renew your mind. So ask the Holy Spirit for discernment.

READ GODS WORD. Reading biblical scripture will help you renew your mind. The bible is our guide and our deliverance manual. There is power in Gods word. Gods word is the truth, and the truth sets us free. So make sure you know Gods word!

"For the word of God is alive and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart." (Hebrews 4:12)

Our transformation (healing and freedom) will come as we change the way we think. And the true meaning of repentance means to change the way think and walk in the opposite direction. We need to shift our focus from our past mistakes, negative thinking, selfish flesh and worldly desires, to thinking the way Jesus thinks. Jesus had compassion and the intention to make disciples and set the captives free. We need to put on the full armor of God and GO do the Great Commission.

Renewing your mind and putting on the armor of God is very important as it protects you from Satan's lies and prevents the evil spirits from coming back. Ephesians 6:13-17 says

“Therefore put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand. Stand firm then, with the belt of truth buckled around your waist, with the breastplate of righteousness in place, and with your feet fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel of peace. In addition to all this, take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.”

Lastly, we need to shift our focus towards making the Great Commission a priority. “These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: “Do not go among the Gentiles or enter any town of the Samaritans. Go rather to the lost sheep of Israel. As you go, proclaim this message: 'The kingdom of heaven has come near.' Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse those who have leprosy, drive out demons. Freely you have received; freely give.” (Matthew 10:5-8)

NOW GO AND SET THE CAPTIVES FREE!!!!

Why don't evil spirits come out? Answer: There may be a legal right.

Some examples:

-Pride. "God resists the proud but gives grace to the humble" (James 4:6).

-Unbelief/doubt. (main sin in the new testament) evil spirits come out by faith (Matthew 17:20)
"Jesus could not perform any miracles there except to lay His hands on a few of the sick and heal them. He was amazed at their unbelief" (Mark 6:5-6).

-Believing in lies and not believing the truth. "The truth will set you free" (John 8:32). "You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father's desires...for there is no truth in him...for he is a liar and the father of lies" (John 8:44).

-Worship of created things. "because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served created things rather than the Creator, God gave them over to shameful lusts, sexual relations and unnatural ones..." (Romans 1:25).

-Negative thinking ex) I am ugly, I am rejected, I am not worthy of Gods love.

-Ancestral/generational curses/soul ties.

-Anything that hasn't been repented of yet (even from younger years of age they have forgotten) Ask the Holy Spirit to reveal it to you.

-Unforgiveness. "if you do not forgive, then your Father in heaven will not forgive you" (Matthew 6:15). If you do not forgive you will be "thrown into to a prison with tormentors". (the unforgiving servant - Matthew 18:21-35).

-Inner vows/word curses. (Jesus asks Peter 3x do you love me to cancel Peter denying Jesus 3x (John 21:15-17).

-Lack of faith. "You don't have enough faith... if you had faith even as small as a mustard seed, you could say to this mountain, "Move from here to there,' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you." (Matthew 17:20)

-Relying on anything other than Jesus for comfort or healing ex. medication, drugs, alcohol, cigarettes, food addictions. "And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another advocate to help you and be with you forever-the Spirit of truth... you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you." (John 14:16-17).

-Partnership/agreement or still in action with the sin. "Later Jesus found him at the temple and said to him, "See, you are well again. Stop sinning or something worse may happen to you." (John 5:14).

-You don't know your authority over the spirit.

-There may be a stubborn spirit.

Examples of legal rights in the bible:

Acts 8:9-25 Simon the sorcerer was full of wickedness, bitterness and sin, even though he was baptized.

1 Corinthians 5:5 Sexual immorality and pride rebuked. “hand him over to the destruction of his flesh” (demons will cause sickness).

Matthew 18:21-35 The unforgiving servant will be thrown into a prison with tormentors.

John 14:30 Jesus says about Satan that “he has nothing in me”.

2 Corinthians 11:4 If a different gospel or a different Jesus is preached to you, you will receive a different Jesus and a different spirit from the Spirit you received.

John 5:14 “Stop sinning lest something worse happens to you” (this man was previously healed).

Matthew 16:23 Having the mind in things of men, not things of God. Stumbling block. Get behind me Satan! (Jesus speaking to Peter).

RENOUNCING & REPENTANCE PRAYER

*Warning, you may start manifesting while you pray this as it breaks all your agreements with the demonic and closes the doors that let them in. It is advised that you pray this with someone who knows their authority in Christ in case you start to manifest a demon.

If you suddenly feel fear, anxiety, panic, pain or tired during this prayer, push through because it's a spirit starting to manifest.***
